

Step3 Letter Formation

A handwriting practice row featuring the letter 'y'. The first 'y' is a solid black outline with a small arrow indicating a counter-clockwise stroke direction. To its right are five dotted 'y's for tracing, followed by a series of six small black dots along a horizontal dashed line.

A tracing guide for the lowercase letters 'ch'. The first letter is a solid black 'ch' with stroke order: a vertical line down to the baseline (1), a diagonal line down and to the right (2), and a curved loop back up and to the left (3). Three dotted 'ch' letters follow, each with a vertical dashed midline. The second and third dotted letters have small black dots at their starting points. The fourth dotted letter has three black dots: one at its starting point and two others along its path. To the far left, there are three yellow stars above the baseline. To the far right, there are three yellow stars below the baseline.

The diagram illustrates the IPA symbol for the voiceless dental fricative /θ/. It shows the symbol with stroke numbers 1 through 4 indicating the sequence of strokes: 1 (vertical line), 2 (horizontal bar), 3 (vertical line), and 4 (curved hook). Below the symbol, a sample word "the" is written in dotted IPA transcription, showing the phonetic realization of the sound.

A tracing guide for the letters 'qu'. It features a solid black 'q' on the left with stroke order arrows labeled 1, 2, 4, and 5. To its right is a dotted 'u'. The word 'qu' appears three more times in dotted format. A horizontal dashed line runs across the page, and a solid black line is at the bottom. Yellow star icons are positioned at the top and bottom edges.

A tracing guide for the letters 'ou' on ruled paper. The first letter 'O' is shown with a large circle and a vertical stroke labeled '1'. The second letter 'u' is shown with a vertical stroke labeled '1' and a horizontal stroke labeled '2'. A downward arrow labeled '3' indicates the direction of the horizontal stroke. The subsequent four letters 'ou' are shown as dotted patterns for tracing practice.
