

Sentences using Steps 1 – 3 letter sounds and tricky words 1 - 20

They all went into the forest.

There are hundreds of bees in his garden.

She was paid to do some jobs on the farm.

He was looking at the goat under the oak tree.

There are some ostriches in the zoo?

“Come here for your dinner,” said Grandad.

“You need to bring a jumper with you,” said the trainer.

They found a torch under the bed.

“Your dog is barking too much,” said the man in the park.

This quilt is hot.

There are some sweets left in the jar.

They are all in the swimming pool.

There is a lot to do this morning.

“You can pick up the coach at the bus stop,” said my uncle.

We think quilts are better than sheets and blankets.

He shook the tree to get some plums.

There is a flash and then comes the thunder.

Food is good for you.

Our boat is floating on the pond.

‘Here is some coffee,’ said Pat.

He keeps his hammer in the shed.

She has paid for her lunch.

They are willing to bring some food with them.

There will be an outing to the zoo next week.

Her bedroom is a mess.

You can park your car in our garden.

Pack all the books in the box.

The farmer keeps some pigs on his farm.

They went for a trip in a helicopter.

“You must not argue with me,” said Grandad.

The man fell off his ladder and cut his leg.

There is a gift for you in your bedroom.

The yard must be swept with this broom.

“Come to me if this is too hard,” said Gran.

The ship sank in the storm.

She was three in March.

Her toothbrush was too soft.

A thorn was stuck in his finger.

“You can drop the rubbish in the next bin,” said the park keeper.

They found some coins on the ground.

I went to the top flat in the lift.

The sums will be hard in this book.

It is hotter in the summer than in the winter.

‘You can stand here and cheer on the band,’ said Dad.

There are sixteen children in the cubs.

“Here is our train,” said Jack.

“We must rescue the man in the river. He cannot swim well,” said the man on the bank of the river.

The lemon was sour.

You must not sit in the sun too long.

There was a spinning top in the cracker.